ПИСЬМО

Hello, Anna!

I'm glad you wrote me this letter. I like to read different kinds of books, my favourite genres are anti-utopia and some of 19th century psychology/psychiatry literature.

It is kinda difficult for me to name the only one author that is my favourite, because I love to read, and I think that ~~any writer is a genius~~ in all authors are genius in their own way, they have their own style and charm...

But personally for me F. Dostoevsky is one of the best novelists ever, and I'm sure that many people will agree with this statement. He and his works definitely deserved all of this popularity and hype around the world.

One of my favourite Dostoevsky's books is "Crime and Punishment". I genuinely think that this book is a masterpiece, because it's filled with deep meaning. Its themes are nihilism, utilitarianism and ~~statism~~ utilitarianism.

In the novel, Dostoevsky pinpointed the dangers of both utilitarianism and rationalism, the main ideas of which inspired the radicals, continuing a fierce criticism he had already started with his "Notes from Underground".

Moral of this novel is that we are all guilty to some degree and the darker the stain the greater the punishment. Best wishes, so

Best wishes,
Sesya

... I'm having a very busy time now as I have to get ready for my exams. As far as I know all students in Russia have to take school exams too...

When are you going to have your exams? What exams have you chosen and why? What are your plans for the summer holidays?

Dear Jim,
Thank you for your email. It was great to hear from you again.
Unfortunately, all students in Russia have to take school exams. It requires much time for preparation, ~~and very~~ ~~exhausting~~ What's more, pupils have a lot of daily stress.
As for me, I'm going to have exams in May. I've chosen English and Science for my exams because I like these subjects and ~~it's~~ ^{they are} very interesting for me. Apart from that, English is important for my future career. As for plans for the summer holidays, I'm going to have a trip to Spain ~~and I would like~~ spend my ~~the~~ vacation with my family.
Keep in touch.
Best wishes,
Sabina

READING

Task 1. Look at the statements (1-6) below about entertainment for children in London. Read the text to decide if each statement is true or false. Put "T" or "F" on your answer sheets. (6 points)

Visiting London with children? Here's a guide to some attractions for younger tourists.

The Barbican Centre has its annual children's festival. Summer in the City, on 1-5 August. Each day's timetable is handed out as you enter. It may include magic shows, face painting, hat making and music. One ticket (£ 4.50 for children, £1 for adults, and no children or adults allowed on their own) buys a full day's activity so you can have a go at everything.

At the South Bank Centre young dancers can join in Sleeping Beauty workshops with the English National Ballet on 3 August. On 4 August Peter Badejo encourages all comers to join in African dance and there's outdoor dance, theatre and music for all the family on the terraces around the Centre at weekends. For example, on 21 August the Teatro Buendia from Cuba will present a show for children of all ages called an Elephant Takes Too Much Room.

At London Zoo there is a special exhibition about animals which have disappeared as well as animals in danger of disappearing. There are life size moving models of dinosaurs, but you can also see living examples of endangered species such as tigers and bird-eating spiders. While you may not want to get too near these, there are plenty of friendly animals in the new Children Zoo which will be happy to let you get close to them.

The Museum of the Moving Image is about the cinema. Its guides are actors dressed as cowboys and films stars. You can learn about film-making in special classes and there is a special exhibition at eye-level for very young children under one meter tall.

If adults are ready for a rest, why not book Sunday lunch at the Russel Hotel? The Jumping Jelly Bean Club offers an exercise class (with qualified instructors) for children while you have a drink. Sit down to lunch together (£14.25 for adults, £3.95 for the children's menu), then while you have your coffee, the Jumping Jelly Beaners watch children's films. The Club is held every Sunday lunchtime and it's free to children with families eating in the hotel.

Dear Jim,

Thank you for your email. It was great to hear from you again.

To be honest, all students in Russia must take exams. Two of them -

Russian and Maths are necessary, and other two we have to choose by ourselves. As for me, I have chosen English and social science because I enjoy learning these subjects. I think they would be important for my future career. As far as I know, we have to take exams in May. And if I passed them, I will have a great summer, full of positive emotions and opportunity to have a rest.

Best wishes,

Ann
